Lee County

A part of the Research Triangle Region

The Southern base of the Research Triangle Region offers access to world-class expertise, an exceptional transportation network, and a vital and diversified industrial base that makes everyone more successful – all with a high quality of life.

- 443,000
  - Workforce

- 32 mins
  - Distance From RDU

- 32%
  - Of Lee County's workforce is in manufacturing

- 27%
  - Have a Bachelor's degree or higher

- 14 Colleges
  - And universities with nearly 15,000 graduates annually located within 60 miles

- 1,000+
  - CCCC degrees and certificates awarded annually

To learn more about Lee County, visit growsandfordnc.com/edc.
North Carolina / Lee County

Target Industries

- Advanced Manufacturing
- Life Sciences
- Energy
- Defense-related Industry

Well Centered for Maximum Access

Being the geographic center of the state, Lee County provides access to world-class amenities via an excellent network of major highways, two Class 1 rail lines, and its regional airport – Raleigh Executive Jetport.

With a diverse workforce of 650,000+ within 30 minutes of Sanford, the county seat, Lee County offers the convenience of small-town life with easy access to major universities, world-class healthcare, professional sports, and a variety of arts and culture venues.

Workforce

Lee County is home to a richly skilled workforce which is due in part to broad opportunities for industrial training and education offered by Central Carolina Community College, one of the state’s largest and best two-year colleges.